Reappraisal Has Begun in Tuscarawas County

The Tuscarawas County Auditor's Office has begun the process of reappraising properties in our County for the 2022 tax year. Called the sexennial reappraisal, the County Auditor is mandated to reappraise all real property in the County every six years. This was last done in 2016.

With over 66,000 parcels of property in our County, we started the process so that we have sufficient time to complete the sexennial reappraisal as required by law. The Tuscarawas County Auditor has selected John G. Cleminshaw, Incorporated, a professional mass appraisal firm, to perform our 2022 sexennial reappraisal. This experienced firm completed our last reappraisal back in 2016 and is very familiar with the properties in our area. Any mass appraisal firm selected to perform a sexennial reappraisal must be approved by the Ohio Department of Taxation.

With the ongoing pandemic, those employed by John G. Cleminshaw, Incorporated will follow the recommendations of the CDC and the Ohio Health Department, which include wearing masks and following social distancing protocols.

With more individuals working from home along with many individuals having installed doorbell cameras, citizens may notice that their property is being reviewed, which may include photography. Those employed by John G. Cleminshaw will be wearing badges and have car signs. If you have any questions or concerns, please call our office at 330-365-3220.
