➤ Ohio State-Issued ID

Ohio Identification (ID) Cards are issued to Ohio residents who do not have a valid driver license. Ohio ID cards are valid for four years or eight years and there is no minimum age for obtaining one. You must provide proof of: full legal name, date of birth, Social Security number (if ever assigned), Legal presence, Ohio residency. COST: $10 (no difference in price between the standard and compliant cards)

Standard Card vs. Compliant Card: Beginning May 3, 2023, the federal government will no longer consider standard driver licenses and identification cards as sufficient forms of identification for air travel. TSA (Transportation Security Administration) will require a federally-compliant driver license, identification card, or other acceptable form of identification such as a U.S. passport or military ID to fly within the U.S.

What documents do you need to obtain a STANDARD ID card?: Proof of full legal name, DOB, legal presence in US, social security number, and Ohio street address. (i.e. Birth Certificate (satisfies: full legal name, DOB, and legal presence in US); Certified Copy of court order (satisfies Social Security and Ohio Street address) or, Social Security card (satisfies social security number), or pay stub (satisfies social security and Ohio street address)... etc. If you do not have these documents, you can call the BMV to ask them about other acceptable documents OR go online to see the list of acceptable documents (<https://publicsafety.ohio.gov/static/bmv2424.pdf>).
